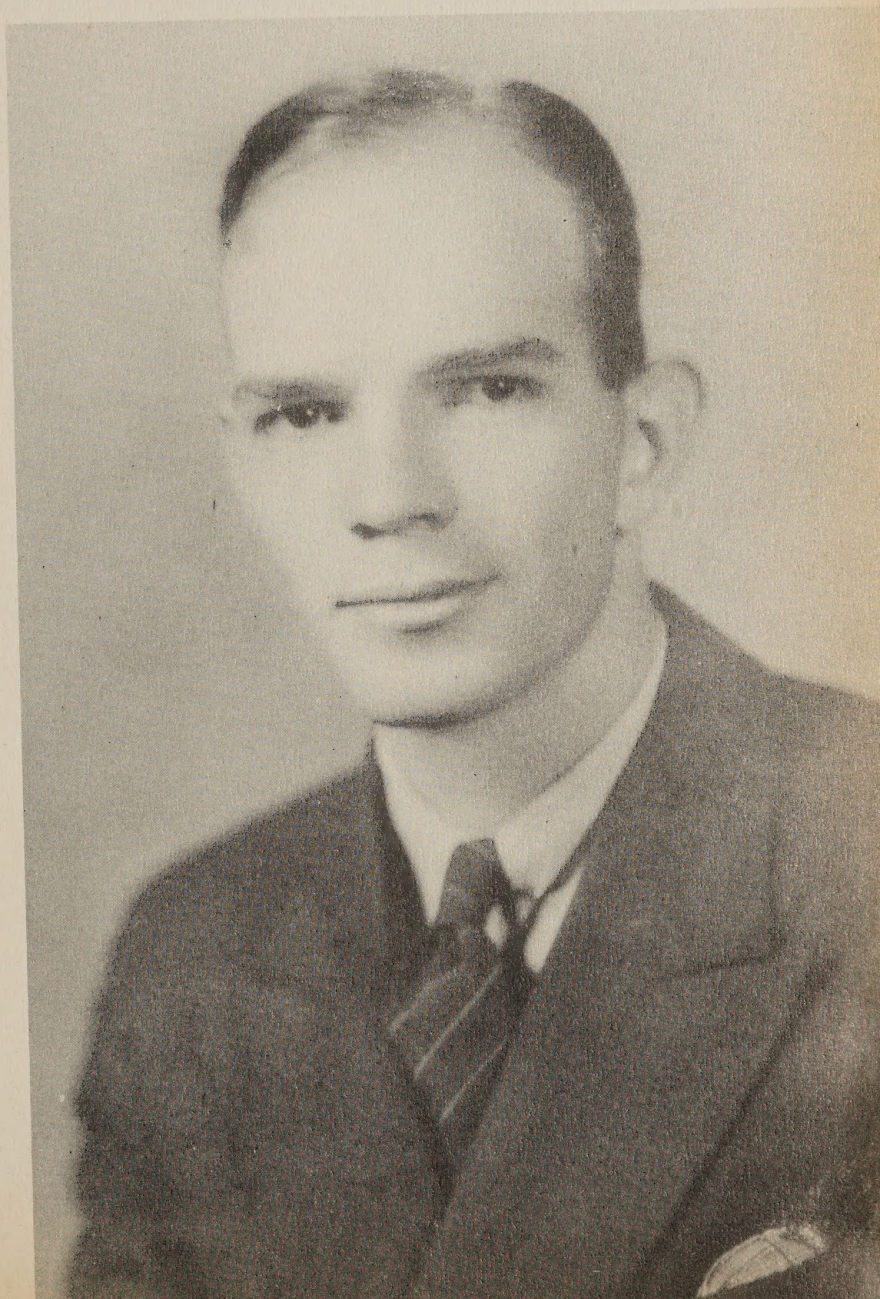
She was a very capable president of the Junior Class of '35, and belonged to Student Government, '36; Athletic Council, '35 and '36; Varsity Basket-ball Team, '35 and '36; Curry Club, '36, and Rifle Club, '36.

Literary Diploma

H. G. Noffsinger, Jr., Sponsor



MARY ASHLEY
BRISTOL, TENNESSEE

Mary was a familiar landmark of the Day Students' Lounge, always either knitting or playing ping-pong. In spite of these, she did well in her school work, and was a dependable member of the Day Students' Club, '35, '36.

Literary Diploma

ALICE COMBS
BRISTOL, TENNESSEE

Through her perusal of the Latin facts, Alice ably qualified as a member of the Cauldron Staff, '36, and added much prestige to the Day Students' Club, '35, '36.

Literary Diploma

SHIRLEY CLEVERDON
MARION, ALABAMA

Shirley, who made the high school a good secretary in '34, returned this year to V. I. with flying colors. She was Secretary of the Delta Phi Omega in '34 and an active member of both the Y. W. C. A. and Y. W. A. Always interested, as well as interesting, her blonde head will be missed on the V. I. campus next year.

Literary Diploma

MARGARET MORGAN
DOTHAN, ALABAMA

Margaret was an active participant on the programs of Y. W. A. and Y. W. C. A. In '35 she was a player on the Volley-ball Squad and in '36 a member of Student Government. May your music bring as much joy to others as it has to us, Margaret.

Concert Diploma in Organ

CHARLOTTE MOORE
CIRCLEVILLE, OHIO

In spite of the dignified Oxford glasses, Charlotte was another very active Senior. Among her activities (besides the mumps in '36) are Glee Club, '36; INTERMONT Staff, '35; Assistant Social Chairman Y. W. C. A., '36; Archery Club, '35; Horseback Riding, '35; and a number of sports. She assisted the Advertising Staff of the '36 INTERMONT.

Literary Diploma

FRANCES KIRKPATRICK
ODESSA, DELAWARE

Nobody was ever so welcome as Fay. We watched for her to bring our mail day and night, or rather, we watched day and night. She belonged to the Y. W. C. A., Y. W. A., and Glee Club but still had time to be president of the Home Economics Club in her senior year.

Diploma in Home Economics

MILDRED SNAPP
RURAL RETREAT, VIRGINIA

Mildred's many friends were sorry to see her leave V. I. early in the year. We are certain that her work in the Training Department will ably fit her to become a grand school "marm." As a member of the Y. W. A. and the Y. W. C. A., she was representative of their ideals.

MARY IRIS HARLOW
PETERSBURG, VIRGINIA

"Harlow," in spite of her studies, belonged to the Y. W. A. and Y. W. C. A. Even though she contributed much to the Basket-ball, Baseball, and Volley-ball teams. Harlow could always be found in the midst of a half dozen seniors relating the Latest Adventures of Little Audrey.

JOY FREEMAN

VIRGINIA PETERS
BECKLEY, WEST VIRGINIA

Virginia was one of these "songbirds of the South" that we hear so much about. She was a very faithful member of the Glee Club in '35 and '36, and seemed to take those vocal exercises quite seriously. Among her activities were Archery Club, '36; Y. W. C. A. and Y. W. A. both years.

"Hawkins" was a member of Y. W. A. and Y. W. C. A. in '35 and '36, Glee Club and East Tennessee Club in '36. She deserves special credit for her accomplishments in two fields of study and still more for the horde of chums she annexed during her stay at V. I.

With Ruth's Chevrolet always at disposal, transportation was never lacking for V. I. trips to the Farm for barbecues and breakfasts. She was a member of Y. W. C. A., '35, and Day Students' Club, '35, '36.

MADGE JOHNSON
MOUNTAIN CITY, TENNESSEE

Madge belonged to the Y. W. A. and Y. W. C. A., made a delightful school "marm" in the training school, and helped us lost ones in the library to find the right book. Won't Madge feel big next year in that country school-room with 50 or 60 children calling her Miss Johnson!

Diploma in Education

DOROTHY SUTTON
CUMBERLAND, MARYLAND

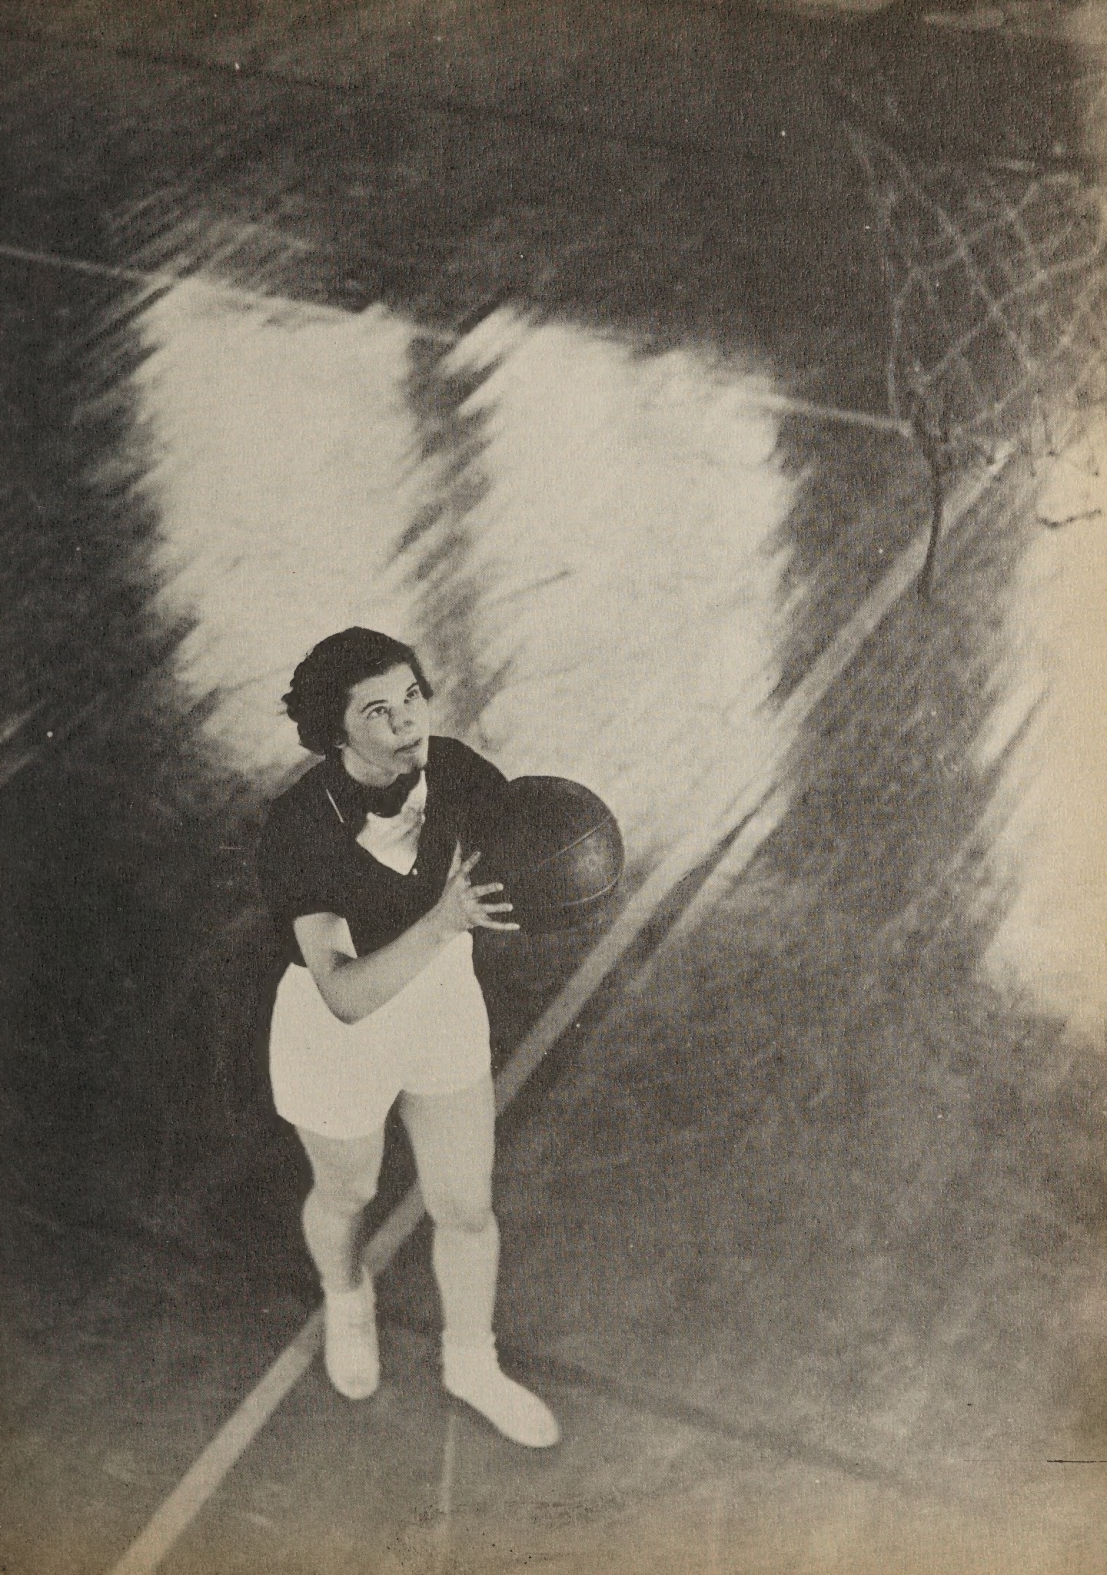
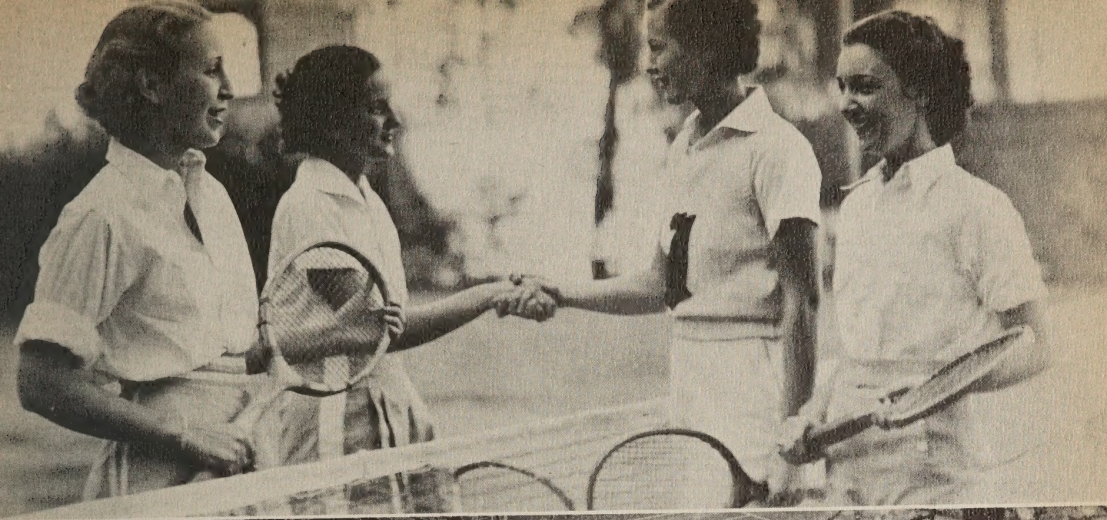
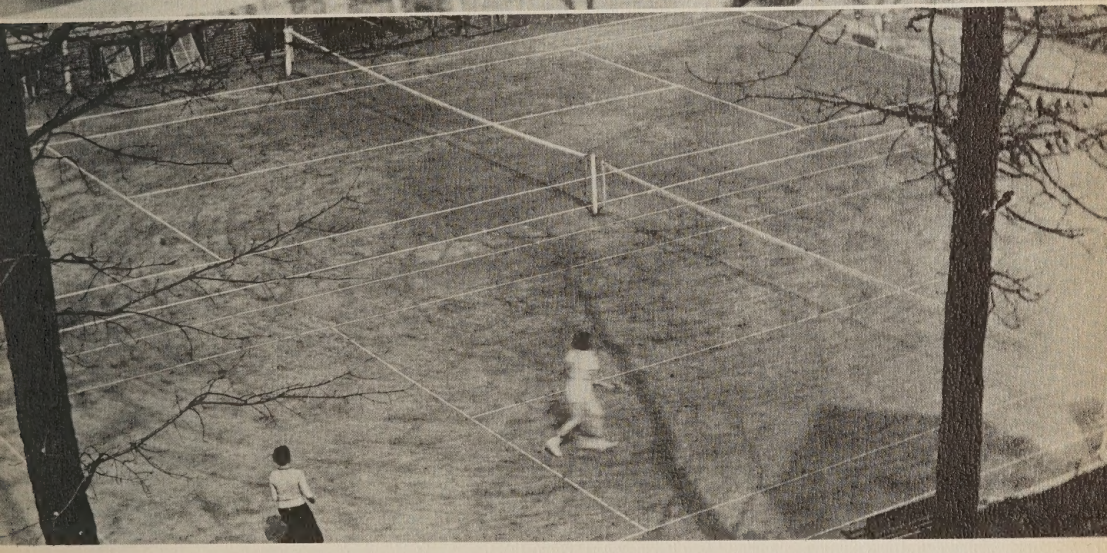
ATHLETICS



One of the joys of the cold winter months is the call of Miss Beasley's shrill whistle to the basket-ball floor. It is always the scene of lively competition, fine sportsmanship, and great enthusiasm, as basket-ball is one of Intermont's major sports. V. I. has gained fame for her strong teams; last year the varsity team defeated Sweetbriar 28-10, and the prospects in '36 are equally as promising. In the inter-class tournament this year, the Seniors wrested the championship from the Juniors by a 28-24 score.

BASKETBALL





In the spring a V. I. girl's fancy usually turns to tennis—as well as other things. When the courts are finally raked and rolled after the ravages of winter, when the white tapes go down and the nets go up, we know that spring has arrived. Out come tennis rackets, balls, and enthusiasts eager for the first "serve" of the season. The spring tournament is always "big news" on the campus; last year Anita Oliver won the cup on the last day of school, and competition for the 1936 championship is as keen as ever.

T E N N I S

The thrill of a brisk canter on Intermont's bridle-paths and riding ring is an experience familiar to many of the girls. Long rides through the sage brush, an early morning round-up of cattle on the V. I. Ranch, canters through the beautiful woods of this section—all these will be long remembered as some of the "high spots" of the college year. The sport is becoming more and more popular, and this year marks the debut of the V. I. Horse Show.

HORSEBACK

To become an expert shot is one of the fondest dreams of many Intermont girls. There is a certain fascination about the sound of lead striking steel backstops, and hearing Miss May's sharp orders. Riflery is one of the most popular sports of our campus. Besides developing an accurate aim and steady nerve, it is a pleasant diversion from routine studies.

ORGANIZATIONS

Because of the pleasant experiences and associations of life at Virginia Intermont, the staff of the 1936 INTERMONT has attempted to portray them in the most vivid way possible. The diligence and invaluable guidance of the staff advisor, Mr. Hugh Noffsinger, Jr., was greatly responsible for what success may be claimed, also for much of the photographic work. Acting as Editor-in-Chief was Meredith Balcoff, and as Business Manager, Nell Pennington, assisted by a most competent staff. This fifty-second issue of V. I.'s annual will have accomplished its purpose if it in any way expresses the personalities, experiences, and aspirations of the Class of '36.

With activities increasing each year students' lives become more and more complex. Life in a college community would not be as full or pleasant were it not for the newspaper which adds so much to the spirit of the school. Under the direction of Prof. C. Ernest Cooke, advisor, and Susan Anderson, Editor-in-Chief, the Virginia Intermont Cauldron has done an outstanding piece of work this year. The members of the Annual Staff wish to extend their sincerest appreciation to their fellow workers for their fine contribution to our college life.

Responsibility for maintaining full cooperation and order among the girls at Virginia Intermont is placed in the hands of the Student Government Council. Its rules of government, as adopted by the students and approved by the faculty, are to promote order, honor, and self-restraint. In spite of their rather difficult position, the members this year have had the unusual ability to gain the love and respect of all Intermont girls. Members of the Council are selected by the student body as representatives of the ideals for which the school stands. The presidency for 1935-'36 was capably filled by Rachel Coots.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Y. W. C. A. organization at Intermont is synonymous with many of the religious activities of the girls. The aim of bringing students into closer contact with spiritual things is carried out through interesting meetings and projects. This phase of its work is combined with activity in the social life of V. I., resulting in many delightful parties and closer companionships. Edna Earle Strong was the able president of the Y. W. C. A. this year.

The Thinking Fellow Rides a Yellow

Question: Why are Yellow Cabs the most popular on the V. I. campus?

Answer: College girls appreciate the new clean Chevrolet cars, the uniformed drivers, the comfort that they are covered by insurance, and the careful courteous, efficient service which is always theirs when they phone 5100 "for a Yellow."

PLEASURE ISLAND

40 HOURS TO PARADISE

The ancient argument is done. No longer need any one debate the exact whereabouts of Paradise. Its latitude and longitude are now known, and returning travelers bring these marvelous tidings of the place:

Paradise lies 600 miles southeast of New York City. You ascend a gangplank... and 40 hours later you are gazing across a divinely blue harbor at lovely coral shores and the white-topped cottages of those fortunate beings who dwell in Paradise. The streets are not paved with gold, but with white coral. No automobiles may enter.... Disdaining wings, the good souls here float around on bicycles, or in a coach driven by an ebony Jehu whose polite diction suggests Oxonian cloisters.... Not a snake crawls in this Eden.... Fig leaves, rumor notwithstanding, are passe. The people dress in linens, printed sheers, bathing suits, cotton tweeds.... Those things that resemble hallos are really solar topees.

Few people play the harp. They prefer golf on superb courses by the sea... tennis... yacht and dinghy racing... fishingfor bonito, tuna, wahoo... dancing.... They bathe in clear prismatic surf... doze blissfully on beaches of sand divinely pink. They absorb health hourly in this semi-tropical land where snow and haste, smoke and hay fever never appear ... where oleanders and Easter Lilies give heavenly fragrance to the air... where, appropriately enough, neither passport nor wealth is required for admittance to the celestial Islands of Bermuda.

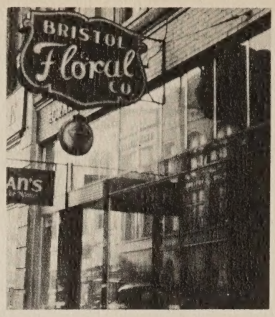
Ranching this Summer—A Unique Vacation!

A complete change from college routine awaits the fortunate girl at V. I. Ranch Camp this summer. Horses a-plenty—Texas saddles, wonderful riding country with faint trails and broken skylines, pack trips to heavily wooded "rough" country, overnight camping parties, swimming in a cool pool of fresh mountain water, tennis on good clay courts, sing-songs with the emphasis on cow-boy ballads, firelight picnics, and loafing about the ranch house, watching the cattle branding on the sprawling 1035 acre ranch are a few of the things which you will never forget. There will be three groups, the Midgets (6 to 12 years), the Intermediates (12 to 15 years), and the Seniors (15 years and over). The camp is small and the number of guests limited. Price for the first term (July 8 to August 20) is only $150.00. Applications should be sent to Miss Marguerite Pflug, Director, V. I. Ranch Camp, Bristol, Va.



Our organization with the most complete hothouse and garden equipment in this section stands ready to meet all your needs for flowers for every occasion, both locally and by wire anywhere.

THE art of book making as developed in the 20th century requires the highest degree of skill. It demands artistic handling of type faces, many of which have a classic beauty in themselves. High grade presswork, which necessitates hours of tedious make-ready to bring out the contrast of light and shadow found in every engraving. And last, but not least, the bookbinding—the art preservative that cares for your book for years to come. Yes, we do all these things, and many more and our journeymen take pride in producing books, especially the College Annuals, of which all of us are proud.
